

John Cadagan

Associate

t: (206) 467-6477

d: (206) 805-3158

f: (206) 467-6292

jcadagan@gordontilden.com

Legal Assistant: Carol Hudson

(206) 467-6477

chudson@gordontilden.com

Profile

John Cadagan represents policyholders in insurance recovery disputes, as well as both plaintiffs and defendants in complex commercial and personal injury litigation. His practice is particularly focused on appellate litigation, where he regularly counsels clients and other lawyers through the appellate process.

Before joining GTTC, John clerked for the Honorable Linda C.J. Lee at the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division II. His years at the court provided unique insight into the appellate court system and shape his approach to litigating in both trial and appellate courts.

Education

- J.D., Gonzaga University School of Law, cum laude, 2014
 - Associate Editor of Gonzaga Law Review
 - CALI Award for Academic Excellence in several subject areas
 - Faculty-appointed Academic Resource Program Tutor
- B.Sci. (Economics), University of Washington, 2011
 - Dean's List
 - Omicron Delta Epsilon – International Honor Society in Economics

Professional and Civic Involvement

- Washington DECA, State Competition Judge
- Office of Immigrants and Refugees, New Citizenship Day

Bar/Court Admissions

- Washington State Bar
- United States District Court, Eastern District of Washington

- United States District Court, Western District of Washington

Personal

I enjoy being outdoors, and I try to take every opportunity to be outside fishing, horseback riding, snow skiing, or spending time at the lake with my wife. My wife and I also enjoy going to Husky football games and following our hometown Zags from afar.